1. INTRODUCTION

The Cayman Islands Data Protection Act (as revised) (“DPA”) governs the use of Personal Data by Cayman Islands entities. PolarStar Management SEZC (“PolarStar”, “We”, “Us”, “Our”) recognises the importance of protecting the privacy of subscribers and shareholders and hereby, in accordance with the DPA, set out our Privacy Notice (“Notice”) in relation to Personal Data. Any terminology and capitalised terms used in this Notice bear the meanings as prescribed in the DPA unless the context requires otherwise.

It should be noted that PolarStar does not transfer personal information you provide to any third parties for their own direct marketing use.

This Notice sets out how PolarStar processes personal data as a Data Controller. We do this in compliance with our obligations under the applicable DPA issued by the Cayman Islands Monetary Authority. We value your privacy and are committed to protecting the privacy of all our clients, business partners and users of our services and website. We therefore ask that you please read our Privacy Policy before providing us with any information about you or any other person.

This Notice explains when and why we collect personal information about people who enquire about or make an investment using the services of PolarStar. The Notice explains how we use that information, the conditions under which we may disclose information to others and how we keep personal information secure.

When using the terms “personal data”, “personal information” or simply “your information” in our Privacy Policy, we mean information that relates to you and allows us to identify you, either directly or in combination with other information that we may hold. The pieces of information are also known as “identifiers” and include a name, an online identifier, or a reference to one or more factors specific to your physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data).

When using the term “processing”, we mean any operation or set of operations which is performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction.

2. ABOUT US

PolarStar is the controller of personal data. PolarStar may engage third-party service providers to process such personal data on our behalf, and those third parties act as processors.

3. HOW TO CONTACT US

If you have any questions about the use of your personal data, your data protection rights or if you want to exercise those rights, please contact info@polarstarfunds.com.

- To respond to, evaluate or deal with any queries, complaints, or legal issues in relation to you;
- For internal and external audits and, where necessary, investigations;
- To establish, exercise, defend or gather evidence relating to any legal claims, litigation or grievance or disciplinary hearings.

THE LEGAL GROUNDS THAT WE RELY ON TO PROCESS YOUR PERSONAL DATA ARE:

- that it is necessary to comply with our legal obligations;
- that it is necessary for the purposes of our legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party to whom your personal data is provided. We will not process your personal data for these purposes if our or the third party's legitimate interests should be overridden by your own interests or fundamental rights and freedoms. The legitimate interests pursued by us in this regard include:
 - Conducting our business in a responsible and commercially prudent manner and dealing with any disputes that may arise;
 - Preventing, investigating, or detecting theft, fraud, or other criminal activity;
 - Pursuing our corporate and social responsibility objectives.
- That it is necessary to take steps at your request prior to entering into our contract with you and for the performance of our contract with you;
- In certain limited circumstances, where we need to protect your interests (or someone else's interests) or where it is needed in the public interest or for official purposes.
- In certain limited circumstances, your consent.

THIS USE OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA IS NECESSARY FOR PERFORMANCE OF YOUR CONTRACT WITH US:

- In order to carry out anti-money laundering checks and related actions including sharing data with police, law enforcement, tax authorities or other government and fraud prevention agencies where we have a legal obligation, including screening transactions, reporting suspicious activity, and complying with production and court orders;
- To report tax related information to tax authorities;
- To investigate and resolve complaints and manage contentious regulatory matters, investigations, and litigation;
- To monitor electronic communications for investigation and fraud prevention purposes, crime detection, prevention, and investigation; and
- Otherwise in accordance with applicable legal obligations under company law, tax law, AML, counter-terrorist financing, counter-proliferation financing, and sanctions legislation.

6. HOW WE USE SPECIAL CATEGORIES OF SENSITIVE PERSONAL DATA

PolarStar will not process sensitive personal data, unless one of the following circumstances is met:

- In certain circumstances with your explicit written consent;
- Where it is necessary for the purposes of carrying out the obligations and exercising our specific rights or of you in the field of employment and social security and social protection law,
- Where it is necessary to protect your vital interests or that of someone else where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent;
- Where it is needed in the public interest, or is requested by a law authority;
- Where it is needed to assess your working capacity on health grounds, subject to appropriate confidentiality safeguards;
- Where it is needed in relation to legal claims or where it is needed to protect your interests (or someone else's interests) and you are not capable of giving your consent;
- where you have already made the information public.
- Where PolarStar is subject to a due diligence process and as provides professional experience details of senior management or key individuals in the business.

7. RECIPIENTS OF DATA

Your personal data may be disclosed to various recipients in connection with the above purposes, including:

- The Boards of PolarStar and (in circumstances where there is legitimate interest, performance of a contract or legal obligation) other employees;
- The Funds' administrator and its affiliates;
- the Fund's custodians, sub-custodians, and brokers;
- the Funds' bankers;
- Regulatory authorities, upon request or as required by applicable law;
- payroll providers, pension and health insurance providers, pensions trustee;
- relevant tax authorities as required by applicable law;

- applicable regulators, which may include the Cayman Islands Monetary Authority, the Tax Information Authority, auditors, or other competent governmental or regulatory authorities, trade unions or equivalent industrial relations body and bodies as requested or required by law;
- Other third parties who we engage to provide services to us, such as financial institutions acting on behalf of the Funds, professional advisers, independent investigators, occupational health specialists, legal advisers, auditors, and IT service providers;
- To screening and other reference agencies in order to carry out money laundering and identity checks and to comply with legal obligations;
- Other members of our corporate group or the corporate groups of the entities referred to above, as well as affiliates, agents, and delegates, both within and outside the Cayman Islands; and
- In the context of a business or group company sale, re-organisation or restructuring or corporate finance activities.

POLARSTAR MAY DISCLOSE YOUR PERSONAL DATA AS FOLLOWS:

- to their affiliates, delegates and third-party service providers engaged in connection with the oversight, safekeeping, administration, distribution, or operation of PolarStar, in order to process the Personal Data for the above-mentioned purposes;
- PolarStar professional advisors, auditors, IT, and other service providers; and
- to competent authorities (including tax authorities), regulators, courts, law enforcement agencies, and other regulatory entities as required by applicable law or requested by such entities, or third-party service providers for internal investigations and reporting purposes.
- to their affiliates, delegates and third-party service providers engaged in connection with the oversight, safekeeping, administration, distribution, or operation of PolarStar, in order to process the Personal Data for the above-mentioned purposes;

In relation to any other third parties, we will only disclose your information in the following circumstances:

- 1) where you have given your consent;
- 2) where we are required to do so by law or enforceable request by a regulatory body;
- 3) where it is necessary for the purpose of, or in connection with legal proceedings or in order to exercise or defend legal rights; or
- 4) if we transfer management or control of the Funds.

8. TRANSFERS ABROAD

In connection with the above purposes your personal data may be transferred outside the Cayman Islands, including to a jurisdiction which is not recognised by the Cayman Islands Ombudsman (the “Ombudsman”) as providing for an equivalent level of protection for personal data as is provided for in the Cayman Islands. This may include the United Kingdom. If and to the extent that we do so, we will ensure that appropriate measures are in place to protect the privacy and integrity of such personal data and in particular will comply with our obligations under relevant data protection laws and regulations governing such transfers, which may include:

- (a) entering into a contract governing the transfer which contains the “standard contractual clauses” approved for this purpose by the Ombudsman;
- (b) where appropriate, transferring your personal data pursuant to binding corporate rules; or
- (c) a transfer where the Ombudsman has decided that the recipient ensures an adequate level of protection.

Where a Personal Data transfer is made to a jurisdiction which provides a level of data protection lower than that prescribed by the DPA, PolarStar will take steps to ensure the security and confidentiality of your Personal Data in accordance with the DPA. Such steps may include establishing contractual undertakings with service providers who process Personal Data on our behalf.

9. RETENTION PERIOD

PolarStar will retain your personal data for the duration of our relationship and for such a period of time after the relationship ends as is necessary to comply with our obligations under applicable law and, if relevant, to deal with any claim or dispute that might arise.

10. DATA SUBJECT RIGHTS

You have various rights in relation to your Personal Data, including the right to request access to your personal information, correct any mistakes on our records, erase or restrict records where they are no longer required, object to use of personal information based on legitimate business interests, ask not to be subject to automated decision making if the decision produces legal or other significant effects on you, and the right to submit a complaint.

We will respond to your request in writing, or orally if requested, as soon as practicable and in any event not more than within one month after of receipt of your request. In exceptional cases, we may extend this period by two months, and we will tell you why. We may request proof of identification to verify your request. For more details in relation to your rights, including how to exercise them.

You may lodge a complaint with the Cayman Islands Ombudsman at info@ombudsman.ky. For further information regarding your Personal Data rights, please see the Ombudsman's website at www.ombudsman.ky

You have the following rights, in certain circumstances and subject to applicable exemptions, in relation to your personal data:

- the right to be informed;
- the right of access;
- the right to rectification;
- the right to stop/restrict processing;
- the right to stop direct marketing;
- the right in relation to automated decision making; and
- the right to complain/sick compensation.

Details regarding each of these rights can be found at PolarStar's Privacy Policy.

11. CONSEQUENCES OF NOT PROVIDING US WITH YOUR INFORMATION/DATA

Where PolarStar requires your Personal Data to comply with AML or other legal, regulatory and tax requirements which arise from collecting fees and making investments as described in the Fund's offering documents, failure to provide this information means PolarStar may not be able to accept you as an investor in the Funds and/or may be unable to process, or release your investment in the Funds. This may result in PolarStar terminating its relationship with you. We will tell you when we ask for your information whether it is a statutory or contractual requirement to give us the information and the consequences of not providing the information.

12. AUTOMATED DECISION MAKING

PolarStar does not use your data for any automated decision-making.
